

“Dunglass is a most sublime designed landscape, now in magnificent fragments – a colossal earthen fortress magicked into an 18th-century garden, a perfect shell of a 14th-century church, and the earliest of picturesque wooded glens. Join us to celebrate this wonder.” Bill Brogden.

Dunglass House by Alexander Nasmyth, reproduced with permission of Bonhams

REDISCOVERING DUNGLASS

12.30 WEDNESDAY 13th JULY to

17.30 THURSDAY 14th JULY 2022

DUNGLASS STABLES, DUNGLASS, COCKBURNSPATH TD13 5XF

A unique two day event exploring the origin of the Picturesque Landscape held in the heart of the landscape with lectures, picnics, tours and discussions, starting with a lunchtime picnic. The geological foundations, Mediaeval history, the ‘French Fort’ built by the Protector Somerset, and records of the impressive house and landscape will be revealed along with that of the family, the Halls of Dunglass, major characters of the enlightenment.

Over two days, the speakers will include Prof. Bill Brogden, Lizzie Swarbrick, John Dent, Ken & Sally Wilson, Ian Gow, Ben Tindall, James McCarthy and Alison Tymon. Tours will include the Dunglass Dean, the 5 Bridges, the Picturesque Landscape, the Shore and the Collegiate Chapel.

Tickets, £60, includes talks, picnic lunches and tours.

To find out more and buy tickets with Eventbrite scan the QR Code above or visit:

https://rediscovering_dunglass_tickets.eventbrite.com

A collaboration of Scotland's Garden & Landscape Heritage, AHSS and the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club, with the support of the Cockburnspath & Cove Community Council.

