

SGLH visit to Blackie House Library and Museum

A Treatise on Forest Trees by William Boutcher

The visit to the Blackie House Library and Museum in the Old Town of Edinburgh presents the opportunity to be guided through a choice group of books, manuscripts, prints and photographs on horticulture and garden design, all selected by Dr William Zachs, the Director. Within the intimate setting of an historic 17th-century tenement, we will share in Bill's passion for collecting, studying and sharing and story-telling, learning more about Scotland's landscape, garden and botanical heritage. Refreshments will be served and are included in the admission fee.
